TERMS & CONDITIONS

• GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Organizing Committee for GFL2017, together with its partners are meant as facilitators for the organization of GFL2017 in Kopaonik. GFL2017 OC and its partners are NOT professional event organizers. The organizational work is done by unpaid volunteer members of Belgrade Ski Team. Participation to GFL2017 is completely voluntary and based on participants' own risk. Winter sports and other activities carried out during the GFL week might be dangerous and lead to risk of injury or even death. In Giant Slalom and Snowboard races, the use of the helmet is mandatory. No exceptions are allowed; race will be refused to those participants that will show at the gate not properly equipped.

The OC, its partners are not responsible for any kind of injury that might occur along the duration of the GFL2017, in any kind of situations. All the information provided from OC and its partners are to be considered as indication and won't take off the participants' responsibility in front of the law. Every participant is responsible to be insured against all risk that can occur on an event like this. All participants which register to GFL2017 allow the GFL2017 OC and its partners to use the personal information provided to sign contracts for the event, notify to public authorities, manage countability and all the needs related to the GFL2017 organization as well as make them public on the website in any moment. We aim to build a sustainable event. For that reason, priority in the registration will be given to ATC Staff and ATM involved personnel. Due to the nature of the entertainment and social activities at the GFL2017, and in accordance with prevailing laws, participants' minimum age is required to be 18. All participants which register to GFL2017 declare to have read and understood this disclaimer, and will take part of the event at their own risk.

• PAYMENT AND CANCELLATION POLICIES

The confirmation of your participation will be given only when the first payment is received. Every participant can withdraw from GFL2017 anytime by informing the GFL2017 OC. Cancellation will be effective upon received and confirmed by GFL2017 OC and subject to a cancellation fee determined according to the date of notification to the GFL2017 OC. Participation quote payable by the participants shall be in accordance with published rates and dates.
